NO LICENSE
FOR NOBLITTHealth Board's Approval Necessary.

COURT IS AGAINST HIM

Doctor who Associated With Quack Refused Permission to Practice Medicine.Dr. W. S. Noblitt, who for professional misconduct lost his license to practice medicine something over a year ago, must obtain a recommendation from the Board of Health that he is qualified to practice before his license will be reissued to him.Some time ago Dr. Noblitt brought mandamus proceedings against Treasurer Lansing to compel the re-issuance of his license and yesterday Judge Humphreys heard the case in the Circuit Court and dismissed the petition.Dr. Noblitt's case has attracted more or less attention for the past year and more. In August, 1899, a quack physician came to Honolulu and began the sale of patent medicines. As the Hawaiian laws were strict against any practice of medicine without a license this man secured the services of Dr.
Noblitt and the two entered into a quasi-partnership. The medical profession resented this affiliation of one of its members with such an individual and Dr. Noblitt's license was revoked.Since that time Dr. Noblitt has continued the practice of medicine and a case against him has been lying dormant in the courts for some time. He has made several applications to the Board of Health for the restoration of his license but as he has shown no regret for, but has rather defended his alliance with the quack, the Board has not seen fit to take favorable action.So in September Dr. Noblitt brought mandamus proceedings to test the right of the Territorial Treasurer to refuse him a license, but Judge Humphreys held that a recommendation from the Board of Health was necessary before it could be granted.

THE WIDEMANN ESTATE.

The master's report on the accounts of H. R. Macfarlane, F. W. Macfarlane and John M. Dowsett, trustees of the estate of Hermann A. Widemann, was filed yesterday in the Circuit Court. It shows that all of the legacies under the will have been paid, and that there is cash on hand amounting to $11,349.83 which is recommended to be distributed. It is noted that one son, Otto Widemann, has not been heard from in thirty years and a determination by the court of the disposition of this balance seems necessary. The accounts are approved.The following paragraphs in the report are of general interest:"Of the real estate only the land described in Royal Patent No. 4040 has been disposed of and that has been done under the following circumstances. The heirs have all agreed that this property was held by decedent as trustee for Carl Widemann, and they have all in writing requested the trustees to convey the same to the Walaane Co. for the sum of $150,000 in partial satisfaction of the debt due it from Carl Widemann, and they further authorize and request the directors to pay the balance of $245.45 due the Walaane Company from said lease and charge the same to their account in equal shares. This has been done and each heir has been charged with $280.60 on account of his share of the residuary estate. This will allow the trustees, if they should see fit, to pay over to Carl Widemann the legacy of $15,000 left in trust for his benefit."The heirs have also done another gracious act in permitting the trustees to charge to each of them the sum of $297.70 on account of each one's share in the residuary estate for the purpose of paying off the debts due by their mother's estate in order to render effective the legacies and bequests provided for by the will."

D. B. SMITH'S INSURANCE.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States in an answer filed by the suit brought in the Circuit Court by Cecil Brown as administrator of the estate of David B. Smith denies all liability in the case. It is claimed that an aunt of the deceased, Mrs. Olivia A. Brown, of Statesville, N. C., has been granted letters of administration of the estate in New York. It consists largely of a life insurance policy of $25,000. Smith was connected with the Manufacturers Shoe Company in this city and dropped dead in a San Francisco hotel last December.

MRS. AULD'S ESTATE.

James Auld has applied to the Circuit Court for the appointment of George R. Carter as administrator of the estate of Catherine P. Auld, his wife.
Mrs. Auld died on October 7th, 1900, and left an estate valued at $1,100, besides a life interest of J. L. Lewis, her former husband, valued at $80,000. She left eight children.An old suit which was brought by Thurston & Carter on behalf of Ed.
Hoffschlaeger & Co. against G. C. Aki-na et al was returned yesterday to the Circuit Court, it having taken over a year to secure service on the defendants who live in North Kohala, Hawaii.
It is for $481.56 for materials furnished for a society building for the Lock Shin Tong society.

WANTS TO BE ADMITTED.

Ching Ahoo, a Chinese who was refused permission to land by Collector Stackable, has brought habeas corpus proceedings in the United States District Court to secure his release. In his petition he alleges that he was born in China on November 21, 1865, and that he came to Hawaii in 1890, remaining here until 1899, when he went back to China for a visit. He was refused permission to land on his return. He tells of many people in Honolulu and about the islands by whom he was employed,among them being John Cummins, at Waimanalo, John Paty, at Waiialua Ranch, Dr. Day and F. M. Hatch. His certificate for return permitted him to be absent but a year but for reasons beyond his own control he was compelled to remain longer than he had intended and so was absent over a year. He returned on the America Maru, October 2nd.

CHILD ADOPTED.

Judge Humphreys has signed a deree authorizing the adoption of Helen Mabel Kuuleponi, infant child of Mary Ann Hutchinson, by Helen K.
Kahookano.

TREE PLANTING PRIZES.

Newspapers' Offerings Awarded by the Committee.The newspaper prizes offered a year ago to be paid to those at the Settlement who should produce the best results in tree planting have just been awarded by the committee, consisting of William Notley and C. B. Reynolds.The prizes awarded were as follows: Thomas K. Nathaniel, $50; school children, $40; Hikalani (w), $30; Kainuwa, $20; Kea, $10. Total, $150.The offering of prizes for the improvement of grounds and planting of trees have stimulated the people to make great efforts in these directions.During the past year or two, under the direction of Superintendent C. B. Reynolds and his assistant, W. J. Feary, great improvements have been made in the appearance of the village, and, supplemented by the efforts of the residents, the place is becoming more attractive than ever before.DESKY SUED FOR ELEVATOR PRICEThe Hawaiian Electric Company, Limited, Wants the Sum of $315.The Hawaiian Electric Company, Limited, has brought suit against Charles S. Desky for a balance due on the purchase price of the elevator which is in operation in the Progress Block. The original price for the elevator was $1822.57 and of this including the $100 commissioned allowed only $1507 has been paid, leaving a balance of $315.57 still due.The petition to the Circuit Court by the Electric Company states that within three years last past at Honolulu, the said defendant became indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $1822.57 for goods, wares and merchandise, to wit: one electric elevator and appurtenances, including grill work surrounding the elevator shaft, purchased by the plaintiff from Morse, Williams & Company, of Philadelphia, for and on account of the defendant, and sold and delivered to him at his special instance and request.It is further alleged that the said sum of $1822.57 has not been paid nor has any part thereof been paid saving and excepting $1407 and the allowances or discount of $100 by way of settlement with Morse, Williams & Company. The company alleges there is now due them from Desky the sum of $315.57, and asks for judgment for the amount.The members of the Chilean Cabinet have resigned, owing to political causes. The State railways lost nearly $500,- 000 last August. No uneasiness is felt at the action of the Cabinet.HAWAII LAND CO.
